Re: Teacherø Guide for Correcting Flawed K-12 Textbooks

Dear Ms./Mr./Dr. _____,

I am writing to make you aware of a recent Teacherø Guide published by Citizens for National Security (CFNS), a nonprofit public charity based in Florida. It is titled "Corrections to Islam-Biased Content in Floridaø K-12 Textbooks," and may be downloaded for free at www.CFNS.US.

This Guide reveals that there are widespread historical inaccuracies and biased presentations in public school textbooks regarding religion, the Israel-Palestinian conflict, the Middle East and the current conflicts the world faces. It is based upon an earlier report by CFNS that cites over 200 examples from about 25 textbooks commonly used nationally to demonstrate how pervasive the problem is. These documents are not written by amateurs or bloggers. They are academic in nature, fully-referenced, and highly credible.

I am genuinely concerned about what is in our textbooks and will be reviewing what my child brings home from now on. I want to encourage you to read the initial report and study the Teacherø Guide for yourself, and see if we have any of the listed textbooks in our system. If we do, please consider using the Teacherø Guide to correct the misinformation and note the purposeful omissions for our students in their classrooms.

We all have an interest in making sure religious or political agenda do not adversely affect our studentsø education, so I hope you will take the time to review these documents. If you have any questions about them, please reach out to Dr. William Saxton of CFNS at 561-483-6430, or e-mail him at DrWASaxton@CFNS.US.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
